

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, leading to health and safety concerns resulting in substantial operational impediments, and the proclamations of states of emergency by Governor Newsom and President Trump, it was determined that the conditions described in section 68115(a) of the Government Code were met with regard to the Superior Court of California, County of Riverside as of March 17, 2020, March 20, 2020, and March 23, 2020. Orders issued on those dates at the request of Presiding Judge John W. Vineyard authorizing the Court to implement certain relief authorized by section 68115. Upon the renewed request of Presiding Judge Vineyard, it is determined that the conditions described in section 68115(a) continue to exist (Gov. Code, § 68115(b)), and it is ordered that the Court is authorized to do the following:

- Hold sessions anywhere in the county, including in correctional and juvenile detention facilities, from March 26, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(1));
- Transfer civil cases pending trial to a superior court in any county, with the consent of all parties to the case, from March 26, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(2)(A));
- Transfer pending civil cases to a superior court in any adjacent county or to a superior court within 100 miles of the border of Riverside County, upon a finding by the court that extreme or undue hardship would result unless a case is transferred for trial, from March 26, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(2)(B));
- Transfer pending civil cases to any superior court within 100 miles of the outer boundary of the area in which the state of emergency has been declared, upon a finding by the court that extreme or undue hardship would result unless a case is transferred for trial, from March 26, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(2)(B));
- Declare that from April 6, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive, be deemed holidays for purposes of computing the time for filing papers with the court under Code of Civil Procedure sections 12 and 12a, if the above-described emergency conditions substantially interfere with the public's ability to file papers in a court facility on those dates (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(4));

- Declare that from April 6, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive, be deemed holidays for purposes of computing time under Penal Code section 825 and Welfare and Institutions Code sections 313, 315, 334, 631, 632, 637, and 657, if the above-described emergency conditions prevent the court from conducting proceedings or accepting filings as necessary to satisfy these deadlines on those dates (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(5));
- Extend by not more than 30 days the duration of any temporary restraining order that would otherwise expire from April 1, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive, because the emergency condition described herein prevented the court from conducting proceedings to determine whether a permanent order should be entered (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(7));
- Extend the time period provided in section 825 of the Penal Code within which a defendant charged with a felony offense must be taken before a magistrate from 48 hours to not more than seven days, applicable only to cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from April 6, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(8));
- Extend the time period provided in section 859b of the Penal Code for the holding of a preliminary examination from 10 court days to not more than 15 court days, applicable only to cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from April 17, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(9));
- Extend the time period provided in section 313 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor taken into custody pending dependency proceedings must be released from custody to not more than seven days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 26, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(11)); deadline otherwise would expire from March 26, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(11));

- Extend the time periods provided in sections 632 and 637 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor taken into custody pending wardship proceedings and charged with a felony offense must be given a detention hearing or rehearing to not more than seven days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 26, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(11));
- Extend the time period provided in section 334 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a hearing on a juvenile dependency petition must be held by not more than 15 days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from April 16, 2020, to April 24, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(12)); and
