

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, leading to health and safety concerns resulting in substantial operational impediments, it was determined that the conditions described in Government Code section 68115(a) were met with regard to the Superior Court of California, County of San Joaquin, as of March 17, 2020, and April 2, 2020. At the request of Presiding Judge Xapuri B. Villapudua, orders issued on those dates authorizing the court to implement certain relief authorized by section 68115(a). Due to the pandemic, Governor Gavin Newsom has declared a statewide state of emergency, and President Donald J. Trump has declared a national state of emergency, both of which remain in effect.

Upon the renewed request of Presiding Judge Villapudua, it is determined that emergency conditions, as described in Government Code section 68115, continue to exist. Accordingly, pursuant to Government Code section 68115(a) and (b), the Superior Court of San Joaquin County is authorized to do the following:

- Declare that from May 1, 2020, to May 27, 2020, inclusive, be deemed holidays for purposes of computing the time for filing papers with the court under Code of Civil Procedure sections 12 and 12a, if the above-described emergency conditions substantially interfere with the public's ability to file papers in a court facility on those dates (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(4));
- Extend the time period provided in section 313 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor taken into custody pending dependency proceedings must be released from custody to not more than seven days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from May 1, 2020, to May 27, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(11));
- Extend the time period provided in section 315 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor taken into custody pending dependency proceedings must be given a detention hearing to not more than seven days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from May 1, 2020, to May 27, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(11));

- Extend the time periods provided in sections 632 and 637 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor taken into custody pending wardship proceedings and charged with a felony offense must be given a detention hearing or rehearing to not more than seven days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from May 1, 2020, to May 27, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(11));
- Extend the time period provided in section 334 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a hearing on a juvenile dependency petition must be held by not more than 15 days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from May 1, 2020, to May 27, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(12)); and
- Extend the time period provided in section 657 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a hearing on a wardship petition for a minor charged with a felony offense must be held by not more than 15 days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from May 1, 2020, to May 27, 2020, inclusive (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(12)).
